

Social Studies Study Guide for Chapter 10 Test

1. The Federalist was a collection of letters that defended the Constitution
2. The First Amendment in the Bill of Rights protects protects religious freedom, rights of free speech,
3. The right to a fair, public trial with a lawyer is due process of law
4. According to the Ninth Amendment, all people have basic human rights
5. President George Washington chose Thomas Jefferson to establish ties with leading world powers
6. The Attorney General is the President's legal advisor
7. Alexander Hamilton wanted what type of government? Strong National govt.
8. Members of the Democratic-Republican Party supported <sup>They</sup> included? - (who?)
Thomas Jefferson
9. Fourth Amendment protected? homes from unreasonable govt searches
10. John Adams was first president to live in white house
11. Anti-Federalists were people who agreed to ratify the constitution only if it included bill of rights
12. What is the Cabinet advisors to the president
13. Thomas Jefferson felt person whose ideas about govt differed greatly from those of Alexander Hamilton
14. Federalists believed wanted to ratify the constitution
15. The First Amendment protects freedom of speech
16. What position did the following people hold? John Jay, Alexander Hamilton, Henry Knox, Edmund Randolph, John Adams
John Jay - Chief Justice of Supreme Court
Alex Hamilton - Secretary of Treasury
Henry Knox - Secretary of War
Edmund Randolph - Attorney General
John Adams - Vice President

17. The Constitution lists the rights guaranteed to all Americans. The Constitution also suggests the responsibilities of citizenship. What are they?
18. On March 4, 1797, the second President of the United States took the oath of office. Write a paragraph telling who took the oath of office on that day and why that event marked an important day in history?

17. obey laws, vote in elections, defend the country, serve on jury, pay taxes

18 John Adams became the 2nd president of the U.S. This was an important day because it marked one of the first times in history of the world that a nation had changed leaders in a peaceful election.